1. An identical 5-page script will be handed out to all school teams at 4pm Friday, Sept. 12, 2003 on AIU campus.
2. Entries must be returned to the UltraStar Poway Theater within 48 hours (that's 4pm on Sun., Sept. 14, 2003). Staff will be on hand at 3:00pm Sunday to accept entries. If you are late turning in your entry, or if it over 5 minutes in length, we will screen it Sunday night, Sept. 14, but it will NOT be eligible for BestFest submission. Program for Sunday night, Sept. 14, 2003:
 - ❖ 4:00pm-6:00pm – Screening Session
 - ❖ 6:00pm-6:45pm – Dinner will be provided.
 - ❖ 6:45pm-9:00pm – Screening Session (continued)
3. Completed entries are to be submitted in mini-DV format accompanied by a completed version of the official 48 Hours of Madness Submission Form. Your tape will not be returned.
 - ❖ Tapes are to be cued to the start and nothing else should be on the tape.
 - ❖ Tapes are to be written in mini-DV format, not DV-Cam format.
4. Teachers can facilitate (brainstorm, provide resources, etc.) but NOT shoot or edit entries.
5. Entries must be less than 5 minutes in total run length.
6. You must follow the script/story line and arc. However, genre, dialogue, POV, shot selection, VO are all subject to your change. If you alter dialogue, please use PG-rated language.
7. A maximum of 50 teams will be allowed. Pre-register by mailing this form along with an entry fee of $50 (per team) in cash or check (payable to the Visual Arts Foundation) to 7140-B Calabria Court, San Diego, CA 92122.
8. Five students maximum per team. Two teams maximum from each school.
9. Entries will be judged for BestFest competition in March 2004. Winning entries (5 from high school and 5 from college) will be screened at BestFest 2004 with schools and students receiving awards.
